REPORT AND

RECOMMENDATION

ON GUILTY PLEA

On January 11, 2007, defendant Tara Williams (Williams), together with her counsel, William C. Bracker, appeared before the undersigned magistrate judge and was advised of the charges, the penalties and the right to appear before a United States District Judge. After orally consenting to proceed before a magistrate judge, Williams entered a plea of guilty to Count I of the Superseding Indictment.

After being sworn, Williams was orally examined by the undersigned magistrate judge in open court as required by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11. Williams also was given the advice required by that Rule. Finally, Williams was given a full opportunity to address the court and ask questions.

Counsel for the government and counsel for Williams were given the opportunity to suggest additional questions by the court. Moreover, both counsel orally certified that they were of the opinion that the plea was knowing, intelligent and voluntary, and that there was a factual basis for Williams's plea of guilty to Count I of the Superseding Indictment.

Therefore, I find and conclude that: (1) the plea is knowing, intelligent, and voluntary; (2) there is a factual basis for the plea; (3) the provisions of Rule 11 and any other provisions of the law governing the submission of guilty pleas have been complied with; (4) a petition to enter a plea of guilty, on a form approved by the court, was completed by Williams, Williams's counsel and counsel for the government, and such petition was placed in the court file (Filing No. 80); (5) the plea agreement is in writing and is filed in the court file (Filing No. 83); (6) there were no other agreements or stipulations other than as contained in the written plea agreement except that the government and Williams agreed that the words “under Rule 11(C)(1)(c)” in Paragraph 9 of the plea agreement should be eliminated.

IT IS RECOMMENDED TO JUDGE LAURIE SMITH CAMP that:

1. She accept the guilty plea and find the defendant, Tara Williams, guilty of the crime set forth in Count I of the Superseding Indictment to which Williams tendered a guilty plea;

2. She accept the written plea agreement with the understanding that the court is not bound by the parties’ stipulations, but may with the aid of the presentence report, determine the facts relevant to sentencing.
